

July 2026

Dear Friends!

In our church we are serious about taking the promises of God serious when it comes to physical healing. This is a good thing, because God does want to heal and restore our bodies. Healing usually does not come in the form of an instantaneous miracle but rather manifests itself in a process over time.

But what about when we need healing for our souls? This is something that is not always easy to understand or diagnose. Many suffer with various degrees of depression. Others live with the effects of traumatic experiences. Burnout is a real thing, even though it is often misunderstood. Emotional health and healing are also included in what Jesus suffered for on the cross. This type of healing also requires time and someone with the skills to aid us in the healing process. It is usually not solved by prayer alone.

As a person who has been blessed to have had my soul restored so many times and in so many ways, I know what it is like to feel the relief when the suffering stops. The pain we feel when we experience loss, when we are disappointed, or when we suffer injustices is real. The fact that we hurt, shows that we are human. We should not be embarrassed or try to deny the reality of our emotional wounds. It is best to seek out help as soon as we can. For some things, a good friend is all we might need – for other things our small group – and for serious matters we should seek out professional help.

The Psalmist David even writes about times when we might even go through what he called, “The valley of the shadow of death”. I like this idea because even in such a valley – we are passing through it – we don’t stay in it! This is important. Whatever valley or dark tunnel that you might find yourself in, is not where you must stay. Please never forget this truth. There is always light at the end of the tunnel, and though it may seem dark and long – you will come out on the other side if you simply keep putting one foot in front of the other.

The key is to never give up, and to never stop moving ahead. This doesn’t mean that you must move fast – don’t put yourself under pressure – don’t get in a hurry, just take one step at a time. Doctors in our day, know this. That is why they get you up and moving right after a hip or knee replacement. It is the same with your soul.

To recover from emotional pain, it is important to get out of bed, eat a good meal, have a routine for physical hygiene, and dress for the day. It might cost a lot of energy, but it will support your recovery. Take the time you need to get well, receive professional help, but don't just lay in bed. A nice walk through the woods would be better. By keeping a routine and getting the help you need, you can return even stronger, wiser, and freer than you were before you entered the crisis.

Your Pastor Rande

Meet Jonathan

Jonathan for the YCM Uganda is presently our guest and travels throughout Germany to present his missions project. Unfortunately, he missed our missions service, but we will give you the opportunity to get to know him personally. Stay after the service on Aug. 2nd for a small African meal and have fellowship with him. Surely, he will tell stories and answer your questions – for sure he also has pictures. ### Unsere Mission

Wir begleiten die nächste Generation dabei, Gott spielerisch und mit Freude kennenzulernen.

Wir schaffen einen Ort, an dem Kinder sich angenommen fühlen und Gemeinschaft erleben.

KINDER KIRCHE

Aufgaben

- Anleiten & Begleiten: Gemeinsam mit den Kindern Lobpreis feiern, Lehrvideos schauen und die vorbereiteten Konzepte umsetzen.
- Frieden stiften: Mitten unter den Kindern sein, ihnen beim Zuhören helfen und liebevoll vermitteln, wenn es mal Reibereien gibt.
- Gemeinschaft leben: Nach dem Programm mit den Kindern spielen (drinnen oder draußen an der frischen Luft).

Das passt zu dir, wenn

- ...du ein Herz für Kinder hast und ihnen gerne auf Augenhöhe begegnest.
- ...du ein geduldiger „Friedensstifter“ bist und gerne für eine gute Atmosphäre sorgst.
- ...du gerne im Team arbeitest und dich über fertige, kreative Konzepte freust.

Zeitaufwand

Alle 2–4 Wochen parallel zum Gottesdienst; kaum Vorbereitungszeit unter der Woche nötig.

Dein Gewinn

Du erlebst die Ehrlichkeit und Begeisterung der Kinder, prägst junge Leben entscheidend mit und bist Teil eines lebendigen, fröhlichen Teams.
