November 2026

Dear Friends,

Does anyone believe in coincidences?

As a believer, I cannot deny that God is ordering my steps. I also believe that He is ordering your steps, and that we often are not even aware of it.

This week I had the privilege of being contacted by someone who I had met 38 years ago. Dasha was a young Bible School student from Sri Lanka. He and some other students would pile into a Ford van and drive from Rudersberg to attend our Sunday services.

I only vaguely remember this young man, who would have been in his early twenties. He now lives in the United States; in North Carolina. He came back to Germany to visit old friends and to revisit the places that he knew from the past.

I met him in the city at a café, and he told me a story that I had never heard. He told me that when he visited our Christian Center for U.S. Servicemen that he met some key people that encouraged him to consider joining the U.S. Army.

He finished Bible School and went on to earn a master's degree in theology in the United States. During this time, he kept in touch with some of the soldiers that he had met in our Christian Center in Schwäbisch Gmünd. After completing his education he joined the U.S. Army and became an Army Chaplain.

On his trip to Germany, he wanted to stop by Schwäbisch Gmünd to visit me and to thank me for putting him in touch with the people that made his future possible. Today at the age of 60, he has a wife and 4 children, is retired from the military and ministers at a Biker Church in North Carolina! I did not remember him and certainly did not know of his story. He even rides a Harley Davidson motorcycle!

Sitting in the café, I pointed out the window to the building where the Christian Center used to be and where all of this began for Dasha. He remembered the building and we took some pictures together.

Truly it is the Lord that is ordering our steps. I believe that we meet the people who God wants us to meet – especially when we gather in His name! Dasha's story is one of dozens that I personally know about.

Looking Back

Snack & Talk

On Oct. 18th, 2026, about 25 people followed the invitation to Snack & Talk. Topic: How well do you know the Holy Spirit?

The conversations at the tables, while eating pieces of pizza and cake, were lively and intensive. Many thanks to all guests, we received many responses and want to put them into practice, as many as possible.

Our Dream Team – join it

We all like to be together and celebrate feasts together. So, we get to know each other better in a relaxed atmosphere and it is easier to invite guests.

To be able to offer more often such events, we started the “Event-Team”.

If it is a potluck – everybody brings something to it – , the missions day – with international food –, giving away flea market or other events; the team creates the appropriate setting.

At present the group is small and more helpers are needed. If they are more, more manifold offers can be presented.

Interested? – Simply let us know!

All our ministries and a short description, you will find on our website the heading Mitmachen”.
